WHAT'S become of Sir Leonard Maxwell? Have the St. Louis authorities let him escape, or have the ladies of that city smothered him with flowers?

THE Yankee sloop, Puritan, that walked away with the English Genesta, was sold in Boston a few days ago for $13,500. She cost when built $25,000.

THE ERA is under obligations to Mr. J. J. Dolan, Secretary of the Lincoln County Stock Association, for the proceedings of the meeting held at Roswell last week.

ATTENTION is called to the Circular printed on editorial page from Surveyor General Julian. Parties having ranches on unsurveyed land had better call the citizens of their settlement together, and inform Mr. Julian about the matter. The quicker the better.

WE would like to inform one F. D. Craig, of North Evanston, Ill., who wants us to do fifty dollars worth of advertising and send him five dollars in cash for a four dollar incubator, that we are not in the chicken business. His statutory cheek is not unlike the new Bartholdi in size.

THE jury in the Aragon case, for the killing of Deputy Sheriff Jasper Corn, lately tried at Springer in Colfax county, brought in a verdict, Tuesday evening, the 25th ult., of murder in the second degree, and sentencing the scoundrel to the penitentiary for life. This man Aragon was either guilty of murder in the first degree, and deserved hanging, or was innocent. There was no half-way business about it. It was cold-blooded murder. That and nothing else. He shot Corn down like he would have done an animal, and just how a jury could let him escape with his neck is not understood. We believe in hanging a man for cold-blooded murder, and turning him loose if it was done in self-defense. It is not much encouragement for an officer to run the risk of being killed in capturing a murderer, and then have the fiend turned loose by a block-headed, ignorant jury.

SINCE the new bridge at Socorro was completed, its merchants, its papers and its citizens are working for Lincoln county's trade. The trade from this county belongs to Socorro, and she could have had it without any exertion on her part when the county first began to settle up, five or six years ago, but most of her people did all they could to stop emigration from coming in this direction; lied about us and went out of their way to kill us. Las Vegas saw her opportunity and made inducements to our merchants and ranchmen to come there and trade. After securing our trade, she treated us kindly, her papers always speaking a good word, and her citizens always lending their aid. But Socorro is nearer this county than Vegas, and her road with the exception of a few miles, is as good as the one to Vegas, and goods can be laid down in the different towns in the county cheaper and quicker than Las Vegas can possibly do it. In these days, "time is money." The Socorro merchants should try to get our trade. She would have a little more work to do now, than she would have had she commenced three or four years back. The new bridge is completed across the Rio Grande at that place, and by advertising properly, and working unceasingly, she can secure the trade from this county, or a big portion of it, that has or should have been here all along.

SMALL-POX is carrying off the people in Montreal, Canada, by the hundreds. The lower classes would not be vaccinated and the physicians are not only unable to check the disease, but it is spreading rapidly every day. It is no uncommon thing to find six and eight dead bodies in one house. Other cities are fearful lest the disease will spread, and sore arms are found everywhere.

THE Republicans of New York have nominated Ira Davenport as their Governor. He has been in the state senate of that state two terms and is not known hardly outside of the district that sent him there. The Democrats also nominated a state ticket with the present governor, D. B. Hill, at its head. He is a man widely known throughout the state. When President Cleveland resigned his seat as Governor to take his seat as President, Gov. Hill was then Lieutenant-Governor. We honestly believe Davenport will find the canvass just entered an up-hill job, and that Gov. Hill will pull Davenport into port for repairs. This deep-laid pun was handed in.

THE Agent of the Mesquero and Jicarilla Apaches, Maj. Llewellyn, sent in his resignation to take effect Sept. 10th, which was accepted, but as yet his successor has not been named. Boggs, the man spoken of, has not yet been appointed, and it would not surprise us if a man in this county did not carry off the honors. Mr. James R. Brent, at present deputy sheriff, has been spoken of quite frequently for the position and has numerous influential friends in the east who are doing all they can for him. If Mr. Brent should be the lucky man, the citizens of this county would throw up their hats with joy. He is a brave, honest gentleman; a man that has hundreds of friends and would fill the position of Indian Agent with credit to himself and his party.

PARTIES living in San Miguel county and having cattle and ranches in Lincoln county, are desirous of paying taxes here. They claim that San Miguel county has them assessed, and are afraid they will have to pay taxes there whether or no. We can't see what grounds San Miguel people have to expect money for taxes that belong to a county, where the stock range. Several ranchmen in the vicinity of Ft. Sumner have stock that eat grass and drink water belonging to Lincoln county, their ranches are in this county, and, although their homes are in Las Vegas, what right have they to pay taxes there, for something they haven't got and leave this county out in the cold? It is just as reasonable to expect a man in Kansas, owning stock in New Mexico, to pay his taxes in the first-named state and leave this territory to rustle. Cattle-men having cattle in Lincoln county should insist on paying their taxes here, get the collector's receipt, and let the outside counties complain. They can not hold them responsible, but would have to bring suit against the county collecting such taxes.

B. D. PRITCHARD a Lt.-Col. in the Fourth Michigan cavalry, during the late unpleasantness, who was in command of the soldiers that captured Davis, made an official report of the same to Secretary of War Stanton just after the capture. This report was published in the Cincinnati Enquirer of Saturday last and gives a very different picture than those that have been going the rounds of late. The soldiers, the Lieutenant says, came upon Davis and party during the night. The next morning at daylight they surrounded the confederate camp and had them prisoners before they were aware that any Union soldiers were in the country. The captured were: Jeff Davis and family (a wife and four children); John H. Reagan, his Postmaster-General; Colonels Harrison and Lubbock, Aid-de-Camps to Davis; Burton N. Harrison, his Private Secretary; Major Maur and Captain Moody, Lieutenant Hathaway, Jeff D. Howell, midshipman in the rebel navy, and twelve private soldiers, Miss Maggie Howell, sister of Mrs. Davis, two waiting maids— one white and one black— and several other servants. They also captured five wagons, three ambulances, about fifteen horses and from twenty to thirty mules. The disguise so much spoken of worn by Davis, was a woman's waterproof cloak and a shawl. This report coming from headquarters, as it does, can be relied upon.

"I thank God that white-winged peace now broods over the land. I came here to preach the peace and not war; to carry as my standard the Stars and Stripes and not the bloody shirt. I thank God that the question of secession has been settled forever and that now at last every star in our glorious old flag has a meaning. I thank God that no vestige of carpet-bagism or scalawag government remains to vex the people."—From Fitz Lee's speech at Winchester, Va.

OFFICE OF THE SURVEYOR GENERAL,
Santa Fe, N. M., Sept. 22, 1885.
To the People of New Mexico:

Under the appointment of funds just made by the land department for the public surveys for the current fiscal year, the territory of New Mexico has been awarded the sum of $3,000 for the survey of confirmed Spanish grants, and $25,000 for the survey of public lands. This appropriation, with the surveys under the deposit system, which are still authorized, will enable a large and important work to be done for the territory if wisely directed. After completing the survey of a few fractional townships which have been improperly left unfinished, the funds specified will be exclusively used in the survey of agricultural lands. Township surveys will be restricted to lands within the range of the progress of settlements. Contracts will not be awarded for the survey of forests, nor of heavily timbered lands, nor of townships remote from settlements the survey of which is not demanded by any public necessity. Much depends upon the judicious expenditure of the appropriations mentioned, and I therefore desire to communicate and confer with the people of the territory on this subject. The records of this office fail to supply me with trustworthy and satisfactory information for my guidance. A very large proportion of the work of the territory has been done under the deposit system, and much of it for speculative purposes in regions in which the surveyors were not needed. Under this system very great abuses were practiced which are now guarded against by the new regulations, so that the real interests of the people may be fairly consulted; and as I am anxious to avoid the misappropriation and waste of the funds set apart for the territory by the government, and to make them as valuable as possible in furtherance of the public interest, I shall be glad to profit by any information I can obtain from every section of the territory bearing upon the question of my duty in the premises. I need scarcely add that I shall insist upon a strict construction of all private grants and a fair and liberal policy touching the rights of actual settlers under the homestead and pre-emption laws.
